

Food Safety Auditor Training Program

Seven Day Training Workshop

Course Outline

- FDFFSACA Assess compliance with food safety programs (2 days)
- FDFFSCHZA Identify, evaluate and control food safety hazards (2 days)
- FDFFSCOMA Communicate and negotiate to conduct food safety hazards (1 day)
- FDFFSFSA Conduct food safety audits (2 days—to be completed in full workshop)

Purpose

This program is specifically designed for you to be competent as a food safety auditor, in line with 4 new units of competencies for food safety auditors. It is part of the National Food Safety Qualification that is developed by the Agri-food Skills Council of Australia. These four auditing units are accredited by RABQSA and will give you the skills, knowledge and competencies required to conduct food safety audits in Australia. If you just require internal auditing skills and knowledge, you can just complete the first unit, Assess compliance with food safety programs in a 2 day workshop.

The Benefits

At the end of this 7 day training workshop, participants will be able to:

- Understand food safety compliance and regulatory requirements
- Identify, evaluate and control food safety hazards
- Communicate, negotiate and develop food safety audit plans
- Conduct internal and external food safety audits
- Obtain further RABQSA certification.

Who Should Attend

This training program is designed for those who work in the food and food-related industry that require skills and knowledge to conduct internal and external food safety audits in a food establishment. It is designed to enable participants to have hands-on experience in preparing for and conducting a food safety audit and to audit external companies.

Course Recognition

This workshop is a competency-based training program. Statements of Attainment will be issued in accordance with the National Training Board and RABQSA. If you think you may be eligible for Skills Recognition or Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) please contact our office for further information. A RABQSA certificate of Achievement can also be issued on successful completion.
